PEFFER, THE FOUNDER

. Amputation of Leg a Few Months Ago Causes ex-Senator's Death.

TRIED TO FINISH HISTORY

Was Leading Figure in Movement Which Stirred the West in 1891.

TOPEKA, Kan., Oct. 7. -William A. Peffer, the first and only Populist United States Senator and founder of the Populist party, died to-day at the home of his daughter at Grenola, Kan.

A few months ago he suffered the amputation of a leg that a history on Popusm. upon which he was at work, might te completed. It was to have been kept the archives of the Kansas State His orical Society to be read by historians n years to come

It does not take a long political memory recall the sensation which Senator Peffer made when he went to Washington as United States Senator. He re a beard which obscured his whole face except his nose and eyes and ex-tended half way to his waist. The whiskers became famous from one end of the country to the other and despatches from Washington were known to concern Senator Peffer when they spoke whiskers without mentioning a name. He was born in Cumberland county. September 10, 1831, the son of Peffer, a farmer. The lad began ing school when he was 15 years id and worked on his father's farm when the country schools were not in session went West when he was 21 and the second year of the civil war collisted as a private in the Eighty-third Regiment of Illinois Volunteers. He served to the end of the war and was nustered out ranked as a Lieutenant.

He went to Clarksville, Tenn., and began the practice of law but soon afterward went to Kansas, where he lived for the rest of his life. He established two country newspapers and in 1874 was elected to the Kansas State Senate. In 1880 he was a Republican Presidential elector. It was in 1891 that the wave of Populism rose in the West and Peffer went to the United States Senate as a the rest of his life. He established two vent to the United States Senate as a to insure domestic tranquility by securing to every man and woman what they earn; to 'establish justice' by procuring an equitable distribution of the products and profits of labor; to 'promote the general welfare' by abolishing class legislation; to 'secure the blessings of liberty to ourselves and our posterity' by projecting the producing masses against to ourselves and our posterity by pro-tecting the producing masses against the spoliation of speculators and usurers." Senator Peffer was one of the first to raise a loud voice against Wall Street. He fought "entrenched capital" and "vested interests" with all the vigor of his maken.

his makeup.

He wrote in 1900, a book on "The Rise and I ail of Populism in the United States."

Mr. Peffer was a striking figure in the Senate during his period of service there from March, 1891, to March, 1897. Tall, cadaverous, lynx' eved, soft of speech and of tread, humble in manner to the point of abjection at times, he introduced bills covering every one of the Populist contentions before he retired. None of them got further than first reading by title; but, forearmed with this knowledge, Peffer was not deterred from preparing them. He retired so poor that the haughty Senate, which once had reviewed him as a joke, provided for him a place on the payroll of its contingent fund to codify the Senate index to the Congressional Record. This he held until a few years ago.

Thompson, and one daughter by marriage, Mps. George B. Hann of City, survive him.

John Colyer, senior member of of J. Colyer & Co., carriage building on Sunday night at his home, 97 Park, Newark. He was born in New enty years ago and lived there all He entered the carriage building of Colyer was vice-president of the Builders National Association of the States. He was active in the Elks survived by his wife and two sons:

Theodore F. Dinkel.

ears ago.

THE REV. W. W. SKEAT.

Professor of Anglo-Saxon at Cambridge Since 1878.

Special Cable Despatch to THE SUN. INDON, Oct. 7.—The Rev. Walter William it, professor of Anglo-Saxon at Cambridge since 1878, died here to-day

The Rev. Walter William Skeat, Litt. D. LL. D. D. C. L. and Ph. D., was a fellow of the British Academy and Erlington and lesworth professor of Angle-Saxon at ber 21, 1835, and educated at Kings ege. Cambridge. He was curate of

Dr. Skeat got the idea that the English what was to be his life work. His ap-Skeat edited many books and he had thown of his works are "A Tale of Ludlow astle," "Langland's Piers Ploughman, The Lay of Havelock," "Joseph of Arima Shakespeare's Plutarch. overbs of Alfred" and "The Wars of He had also covered in his critings almost all of Chaucer, and had tritten several dictionaries of words used in various periods.

GEN. FRANK G. SMITH DEAD.

Distinguished Himself at Battle of Chickamauga.

VASHINGTON, Oct. 7 .- Brig.-Gen. Frank War, died at his home in this city

Smith is survived by his wife, Mrs. Artillery Corps, and a son, Charles Two brothers, Thomas P. Smith Dr. Charles E. Smith, live in St. Paul, W. H. Sykes (Oldsmobile).

y Order of the Loyal Legion and had the Fourth Field Artiliery August 5, 1861.

During the civil war he was brevetted a Captain for gallant conduct at the battle of Stone River, Tenn., and again brevetted (Rnox): Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Ferguson (Pierce-Arrow.)

FFER, THE FOUNDER

OF POPULISM, IS DEAD

to the grade of Major for meritorious services in the battle of Chickamauga. He continued in the army and rose to the rank of Brigadier-General, receiving his commission August 3, 1962. The next day he was retired at his own request after more than forty years active service.

DR. JOHN E. BRADLEY.

Author and Educator Drops Dead at His Mass.chusetts Home.

Boston, Oct. 7.—Dr. John E. Bradley, a well known author and educator, dropped dead this noon at his home in Randolph, aged 73.

He was born in Lee, was graduated from Williams College in 1865 and received degrees of A.M. in 1868 and LL. D. in 1893 and the degree of D. H. D. at New York University in 1879. He married Margaret T. Gould of Albarty in 1870.

Mr. Bradley was principal of the bleb.

Mr. Bradley was principal of the high school in Pittsfield from 1865 to 1868, principal of the high school in Albany from 1868 to 1886, a member of the commission of New York State at the Paris exposition in 1878, superintendent of schools at Minneapolis for six years, president of Illinois College 1892 to 1900 and a member of the national committee of education since 1889.

Mr. Bradley went to Randolph in 1901

Mr. Bradley went to Randolph in 1961 and for six years was superintendent of schools there. His wife survives him.

ANDREW GIFFORD AGNEW.

Retired Banker and Business Mar Dies at New Canaan, Conn.

Andrew Gifford Agnew, a director of the Farmers Loan and Trust Company and a trustee of the Greenwich Savings Bank, died on Sunday at New Canaan, Conn. He was in his seventy-ninth year and had been spending a part of the summer in New

Mr. Agnew was born in this city and had been in business here for many years. He retired from active affairs some years ago. His wife was Miss Mary H. Bliss. He member of the Union League, Down Town, City and Riding clubs. His new home was at 9 West Fifty-sixth street. He is survived by four children. Cornelius

R. Agnew, George Bliss Agnew, Mrs. Edgar Auchineloss and Mrs. Henry Johnson Fisher.

William M. Hoge.

William M. Hoge, long prominent in com nercial travellers' organizations and active mercial travellers' organizations and active in Democratic politics in Brooklyn, is dead at his home, 184 Lefferts place. He was born in Wheeling, W. Va., sixty-eight years ago, and had been a resident of Brooklyn for twenty-six years. He was one of the organizers and secretary of the Commercial Travellers and Business Men's Anti-Trust League.

went to the United States Senate as a Populist Senator. Seven years later, when he had retired from the Senate, he was the Prohibition candidate for Governor. Then he went back to his desk and spent the rest of his years as a writer. In a contribution to the North American Retieu, written while he was still in the Senate, he wrote a terse summary of the Fopulistic creed. It has many familiar ideas and several familiar phrases:

The Populist party is an organized demand that the functions of government shall be exercised only for the mutual benefit of all the people. It asserts that government is useful only to tite extent that it serves to advance the common weal. Believing that the public good is paramount to private interests, it protests against the delegation of sovereign powers to private agencies.

It's motto is Equal rights to all; special privileges to none.' Devoted to the interests for which the Constitution of the United States was adopted, it proposes to insure domestic tranquillity by securing to every man and woman what they earn; to 'establish justice' by procuring of the course of the cour Jefferson University. He made a specialty of nervous diseases. His wife survives him.

Adam Wandling Creveling.

WASHINGTON, N. J., Oct. 7.—Adam Wandling Creveling, a retired merchant of Washington, is dead at his home at the age of $5. Mr. Creveling was one of the pioneer storekeepers of Washington. He retired t 1896 after having been in business forty-si years. He was born at Pleasant Valley, nea here. His second wife, who was Lizz marriage, Mrs. George B. Hann of Atlant City, survive him.

John Colyer, senior member of the fire of J. Colyer & Co., carriage builders, die on Sunday night at his home, 97 Lincol Park, Newark. He was born in Newark sev enty years ago and lived there all his life He entered the carriage building establish ment of his father at the age of 29. Mr Colyer was vice-president of the Carriege Builders National Association of the United States. He was active in the Elks. He is president of the Dinkel & Jewel Company and ex-village trustee of Tarrytown, died a John F. Dinkel. His wife and three children

DIPPEL'S OPERA NOVELTIES.

He Announces Treats for Chicago and Philadelphia. Andreas Dippel, general manager of the Philadelphia-Chicago Opera Company, announced yesterday that the operation novelties to be produced in these two cities this season will be: In French— "Noel," by Baron Frederic d'Erlanger: "Le Rans des Vaches," (Kuhreigen), Dr. Wilhelm Kienzl; "Herodiade," or of Anglo-Saxon at bondon and deducated at Kings by Riccardo Zandonai; "Manon Lescaut," by Riccardo Zandonai; "Manon Lescaut," by Glacomo Puccini; "Cassandra," by Vit-torio Gneccni; "I Dispettosi Amanti," by Attilo Parelli; "Marietta," by Dr. Lud-Last Dereham in 1860, and was founder and wig Rochlitzer, and in English—"The Cricket on the Hearth," by Carl Goldmark.

The company has also acquired the The company has also acquired the grammar is almost entirely dependent on the Saxon while he was at Kings College (The four Rustics), by Ermanno Wolfschool. He cultivated his knowledge of the language, edited an Anglo-Saxon book or two, and gradually fitted himself out for Waltershausen. The last three operas mentioned. Mr. Dippel will produce dur-ing the coming season, only if the neces sary time for rehearsals is available otherwise their production will be deferred

THE TOURISTS.

New Yorkers Who Are Trying the Country Roads by Auto.

LENOX, Mass., Oct. 7.-Motor arrivals the Hotel Aspinwall from New York: Mr and Mrs. John F. Talmadge, Master John Ditmas Talmadge (Packard); Harry B. Strong, James M. Strong, W. H. Warner, E. E. Gage, F. W. Prescott Miss Day, Miss Schepp, Miss Davis (Pierce-Arrow); Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Hopkins, Miss Mary T. Hopkins (Alco); Mr. and Mrs. th, U. S. A., retired, a veteran of the F. W. Rockwell, Miss Harriet Rockwell (Peerless): Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Harvey, Mrs. Laura L. Walker (Benz); Mr. Teanna D. Smith two daughters, Miss Ora Dana (Marmon); Mr. and Mrs. William F. Chamberlain of the ard: Mr. and Mrs. Thomas C. Purdy, Miss Constance Purdy, Miss Mabel Hammond (Stevens); Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Lewis, Mrs.

Interment will be in Arlington.
Smith was a member of the Milithe Curtis Holel: Chaplain and Mrs. W. O. w Order of the Loyal Legion and had merly been a member of the Chicaka- Miss Waring (Chalmers); Mrs. F. Jenks, Mrs. Welter Gills, Miss Gills (Packard):
A Pennsylvania February 16, 1840, and
A Pennsylvania February 16, 1840, and
Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Brown, the Misses Brown (Packard): James C. Cowell, W. C.
Baxter, C. F. Polk, E. M. Kennedy, J. L. Mrs. Weiter Gills, Miss Gills (Packard);

"THE WOMAN HATERS" ON VIEW AT THE ASTOR

A. H. Woods Produces Operetta From German of Leo Stein and Lindau.

EDMUND EYSLER'S MUSIC

George V. Hobart Supplied the American Book, Lyrics and Humor.

	"The Woman Haters"-At the Astor Theatre.
e	Tilly Von Eberhardt Dolly Castles
r	Baroness Von Eberhardt Mrs. Stuart Robson
n	Frau Von KregerJane Bliss
x	JennieAmelia Rose
F	Nellie Helen Latten
e	Frau Von Auflander Elsa Ward
t	Kitty Grace Robinson
c	May Adele Remington
- 1	Frau Von Babst
- 1	Jessie
n	AdaCasmo Lane
al	Lina
1	Spitzki
1	Col. Liebwohl Charles W. Kaufman
. 1	Capt. Schnepp
-	Herr Pfhiger Albert Macklin
	Baron Sileer Bert Crossman
e	Herr Zimmer
a	Lieut. Wagner Arthur J. Snyder
18	Herr Obermiller
	Herr Krupp Walter P. Hearne

beginning of the tenancy of Cohan & A captain in the army had quarbetrothed. So embittered was he by his fate that he vowed never to love another woman nor even to know one.

He gathered about him a company of equally disappointed lovers and they formed a club which was to oppose the domination of women over the stronger sex. It happened that a relative died without learning that the two had separated and left the chateau.

They did not live at opposite ends of it Oh, no. Most of their time was spent in a room which belonged to each of them WITH SOTHERN AND MARLOWE. up to its middle point. Beyond that neither dared to trespass. But they and their friends kept as near it as possible. The men could not smoke the women away, but the suggestion of an improper joke finally caused them to clear out.

The men wanted the room for a meeting of their club. The titled relative wanted it merely because she wanted a thing when she wanted it. So the merry war went on until his former love began to negotiate for the purchase of half the house that she might be near the man whom she had so embittered.

There were other amusing episodes in "The Woman Haters," such as a silly ass Englishman of a novel stolidity who was none the less amusing because he was so different from the rest of his stage kind But it was the fresh situation which Stein and Lindau had devised that gave the greatest value to the text of the new Viennese operetta.

Its music will also be an important factor in the success of the new work-it was most waltzes of the customary Viennese characrather by fineness and delicacy of orches tration than by melodic or rhythmical ef fectiveness.

There were other dance movements Faversham Puts On "Julius Caesar." that imparted the necessary vivacity to the score, which was delivered in rather stentorian fashion, when another interpretation would have been much more appropriate to its nature. Sally Fisher was a graceful and altogether voice as if she were trying to be heard at Power was Brutus, Frank Keenan, Custhe Battery. The Astor Theatre is not sius; Fuller large. Dolly Castles, a newcomer from Opp, Portia. Australia, possesses an agreeable blond personality and dances nimbly. So does Joseph Santley. Walter Lawrence as the disheartened heir and Leslie Kenyon as the English Lord who talked always in the terms of the incorrigible automobilist.

"Master of the House" at the Lyric. The Thirty-ninth Street Theatre, which the English Lord who talked always in the terms of the incorrigible automobilist. were other members of the excellent com music by Anatol Friedland. The youthful and exuberant officer in the gaird's does not want to marry the young cousin to whom he is afflanced. He has seen her maid, mistaken her for the heires and decided he does not want to marry her. He has just come home from celebrating his backer of timer. In the meantime his childhood decides that she will do something toward investigating the character of her cousin. So she takes service in her uncle's home.

She serves breakfast, as a maid, she steaches the young man—very engagingly represented by Thomas Richards—to pay more than 35 cents of the near the first open of the serves of th relied with the widow to whom he was means to marry her. He swears that he does. She will return to him later, the maid answers. When she comes back it is in the she is getting. The label 'strictly fresh' costume of the heiress. Not until he sur-renders the sword of his fathers to her does she surrender and yow to marry him. Miss Glaser acted with her usual spirit.

Arch is one of the words that best describe

Richards sings well and the two succeeded ods. in making first love appear very alluring to the spectators at the Colonial ysterday.

The Popular Players Revive "The Merchant of Venice."

E. H. Sothern and Julia Marlowe were finally caused them to clear out. Until seen last night at the Manhattan Opera that time neither side would surrender it to the other.

> In its scenic and other details the performance was worthy of the reputation which these two artists have established.

"Ziegfeld Follies" Performed. PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 7.—The "Ziegfeld Follies," series of 1912, was produced here to-night at the Forrest Theatre. The book is by Harry B. Smith, with music by Raymond Hubbell. The new work is in three acts and fifteen elaborate scenes. The players include Harry Watson, Jr., Leon Errol, Lillian Lorraine, Bernard Granville, Ray Samuels, Ida Adams, Charles Jubels, Stella Chatelane, Josie assuredly successful last night—for Ed-sadler. Vera Maxwell, Volant Willian mund Eysler has contributed some graceful Schrode, Peter Swift, Grace Duboise, Ar waltzes of the customary Viennese character to the score. They are distinguished Trixie Wilson and Bert Williams. Th "Ziegfielld Follies" opens at the Moulin Rouge, New York, October 21.

TORONTO. Ont., Oct. 7.-William Faversham and his company, which includes Tyrone Power, Frank Keenan, F Mellish and Julie Opp, gave the first formance of his production of Si alturing figure as the heroine. It is not in the least necessary for her to force her Mr. Faversham was Antony, Tyrone Fuller Mellish, Caesar; and Julie "Master of the House" at the Lyric "The Master of the House," was dark last night preparatory to the production of "The Brute" there to-night. "The Master of the House" was transferred to the Swift & Company's sales of Fresh Beef in New York City for the week ending Saturday, Oct. 5, Lyric Theatre, where its run will be continued.

ther Knickerbocker's Crowded Week.

| LULU GLASER IN VAUDEVILLE | Appears at the Colonial in the Operation "First Love." It is colonial theory. To Richards | Cap. Bursham, the report of the Stage | The Shadaw and the

on a crate of eggs does not mean that the eggs were laid yesterday, or last week, or even last month. It simply means at best that they are part of her. She is moreover a comedienne with the April crop and have been preserved some sentimental powers as well. Mr. according to the most approved meth-

"'Fancy eggs' include special varieties, such as leghorns, and also freshly laid eggs. But the only bens laving now are those kept in specially heated houses and fed on a special diet, and there are only enough of these fancy eggs to supply from 5 to 10 per cent. of the trade.

"It is all right for retail dealers to charge 50 cents for these eggs, the fact is they are charging that for cold storage eggs. marked 'strictly fresh.' The ignorant housekeeper cheerfully pays 50 cents for what she could easily get for 35 if she understood her business."

When Mrs. Heath was asked what Crouch & the retailer was to do if the wholesalers compelled him to pay 35 cents or more for the best cold storage eggs she replied that that was up to him The Housewives League had all they could do to look after the homes of the country, which are in danger of disruption because of the high cost of Mrs. Heath will address a mass meet ing of housewives at Washington Market at 10:30 to-morrow morning.

Notes of the Social World. In Christ Church, Babylon, L. I., to-day

Miss Beatrice Nicholas, a daughter of the late Harry I. Nicholas, will be married to Edward Nicoll Townsend. Jr. Mrs. Charles Steele will give a dance at Sunridge Hail. Westbury, L. I., on the night of November 27 to introduce to society daughter, Miss Nancy Steele. Mrs. Frederick Edey, who is now at the Virginia Hot Springs, will give a reception at her home, 10 West Fifty-sixth street, on November 14 to introduce her daughter, Miss Julia Edey, her niece, Miss Pauline Clarkson and Mr. Edey's ward, Miss Audrey Osborr Mrs. Philip M. Lydig will arrive from Europe early next month.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph B. Hoyt will return from Sea Bright, N. J., late this month Their daughter, Miss Gertrude Hoyt, will one of the debutantes of the winter. 177 Broadway

John C. Westervelt and his son, Leonidas Westerveit, have returned from a fishing trip to the Belgrade Lakes in Maine, to 7 West

Stope of Williams College and Visite NOT CRAZY, SHE SAYS,

His Father's Birthplace, MANCHESTER, Vt., Oct. 7.—President and Mrs. Taft arrived here to-night after a motor trip of 130 miles, and spent the night at the home of Robert T. Lincoln. The President left Dalton, Mass., where he spent the week end, with Senator W. Murray Crane, about 9 o'clock this morning. He made a short stop at Williams College at Williamstown, Mass., going directly to the home of President Garfield of the college, who with Mrs. Garfield and Dr. Franklin Carter, former president of the college, met the party at the automo-bile and escorted them into the house. A few people had gathered to meet Mr and Mrs. Taft, and Mrs. Murray Crane who accompanied the party. The Presidential car struck bad roads shortly after entering Vermont and was slightly behind its schedule at Brattleboro, where a stop of several hours was made for luncheon. In the afternoon the President motored to the summit of a mountain near West Townshend, Vt., to visit the little cemetery where his great-grandfather was buried. Mr. Taft's father, Alphonse Taft, was born in Townshend, and the town was decorated with American flags in honor of the President's visit. He made a brief speech, lauding the sterling qualities of the Vermont people.

The President and Mrs. Taft will leave here at 9:30 o'clock to-morrow morning to go to Montpelier.

AT VIRGINIA HOT SPRINGS.

The Many Horseback Riders Invited to Paper Chase at Oak Grove. Hor Springs, Va., Oct. 7.—There has never been a season when horseback riding was as much in vogue as now. About 200 saddle horses are used every day by the people at the Homestead.

Col. Robert M. Thompson is planning a riding trip to Washington. The distance distance is 250 miles.

distance is 250 miles.

The New York arrivals: Mrs. T. S. Fuller, George V. Chamberlain. Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Moffett, Master J. A. Moffett, Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Moffett, Master J. A. Moffett, Mr. and Mrs. Ambrose R. Adams, Miss Alma Adams, Mr. and Mrs. T. B. M. Terhune, Miss Bertha B. Ferguson, Theodore M. Crisp, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Carolina, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Robinson, Mrs. W. M. Kingsland, Mrs. Arthur Gibb, Miss Dorothy Gibb, Miss Reta Gibb, J. T. Conway, F. M. Harrison, S. H. Harris, H. H. Hungerford, Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur A. Bloodgood and Miss Rosalie Bloodgood.

Two Philadelphia Engagements.

PHILADEPHIA, Oct. 7.—The engagement is announced of Miss May I. Dudley, daughter of Edward Dudley of the Un-

He met Mrs. Kearns years ago. After the Pimlico meeting Mr. and Mrs. Shaw will probably go to Europe.

In New York To-day.

American Society of Mechanical Engineers meeting, Engineering Societies Building, 8:15 P. M Advertising Men's League of New York, meeting and dinner. Aidine Club, 7 P. M. Cejebration of Washington Markets centennial Washington Market, 10 30 A. M.

Sphing Club, dinner, Waldorf Astoria, 7 P. M. Southeastern Freight Association, convention Waldorf Astoria, all day.

Canadian Club of New York, dinner, Waldorf-

Astoria, 8 P. M. Commodore Rogers's Golden Wedding.

Commodore and Mrs. J. M. Rogers held a reception at their home in Ocean avenue, Bay Shore, L. I., yesterday afternoon to celebrate their golden wedding anniversary. He is 85 years old and his wife is 74, but both are in excellent health. The couple have seven children.

Fitzgerald

A thoroughly practical

Wardrobe Trunk Rawhide Trim

Luggage Light Weight Durable Shopping Bags 154 Fifth Avenue

Commercial Trunks

723 Sixth Ave.

TO GIVE TO MISSIONS Miss Vreeland Resists Efforts of Relatives to Thwart Her Plans.

MANY THINK SHE'S SANE

Court Believes So Too, but Cannot Withdraw Commission -Expert to Decide.

Because Miss Anna Helene Vreeland an enhusiastic church worker living at 145 Grant avenue, Jersey City, decided to dispos of her $35,000 worth of property and go to the northern part of India, where she proposed to establish a home for missionaries and to take an active part in the work, a nephew, Raymond V. Baylor, a Jersey City lawyer, has obtained an order from the New Jersey Court of Chancery appointing a commission to inquire into his aunt's sanity.

Frank P. McDermott, Miss Vreeland's, attorney, applied yesterday for an order. vacating the appointing of the commis-sion, declaring that she is perfectly same and intends to take the first steamer for India as soon as she settles her business affairs. Miss Vreeland personally supports several Indian missionaries.

Miss Vreeland presented an affiderits declaring herself to be sane. So numerate ous were the other affidavits of friends. and particularly her family physician, Dr. Horace G. Bidwell, that Vice-Chancellor Lindley M. Garrison was somewhat puzzled. He finally decided that he would appoint an expert on insanity and if the physician declares Miss Vreeland to be sane that shoud end the matter. The court declined to vacate the order appointing the commission. declaring that t would establish a precedent which would be bad form. The Vice-Chancellor said: "It is a serious thing to be able to come into court and obtain an order calling for a commission to examine a person alleged to be insane without having a preliminary examination. Some changes must be made in the present insanity laws of New Jersey, which are grossly defective. During the summer I had occasion to look into our insanity laws very closely, and I am firmly convinced that all sorts of amendments are needed.

ing, 'I Am Under the Blood of the Cruci-fied One.' Finally while singing she threw up her hands and raised one of her feet and shouted out 'Sing, Boys, Sing.' Mr. Vreeland told me he left-in disgust."

Hamlin Garland's House Burned. CHICAGO, Oct. 7.—Hamlin Garland, the author, narrowly escaped death this morning in a fire that destroyed his home at West Salem. Awakened by the flames, he was obliged to leap from a second story window. Curios gathered by Mr. Garland in all parts of the world were MARRIED.

METZ-PATTERSON .- On Saturday, October-6, 1912, by the Rev. Robert C. Dennison of Union Congregational Church, at the par-sonage in New Haven, Conn., Miss Agnes Janet Patterson of New Canaan, Conn., to John Henry Metz of Elizabeth, N. J.

DIED.

AGNEW.—At New Canaan, Conn., Sunday evening, Andrew Gifford Agnew, aged 79 years. Funeral services at Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church in the city of New York, Wednesday morning, October 9, 1912, at 10 o'clock, Kindly omit flowers.

DUNHAM.—Henry P., on October 4, 1912, eldest son of Adeline M. and the late Thomas C. KELLOGG.-On Saturday, October 5, 1912, after a lingering liness. Filza McIntosh Kellogg, beloved wife of Luther Lafin Kellogg and daughter of the late Major Gen. John B. McIntosh, U. S. A., and Amelia S. McIntosh. Funeral services at her late residence, 133 West 70th st., New York city, on Wednesday morning, October 9, 1912, at 10 o'clock. Interment at the convenience of the family. New Brunswick, N. J., papers please copy. KNY.-Louis T., aged 65 years. Body lying in state "THE FUNERAL CHURCH." 241 West 23d At. (FRANK CAMPBELL BUILDING).

RALPH. On October 5, Isabel M., widow of Julian Ralph, in the 58th year of her age. Services at residence of Cornelius S. Mount, 58 Maple av., Red Bank, N. J., at 2 P. M. Wednesday, October 9. Interment Fairview Cemetery, Red Bank.

STEUERWALD .- At her home, San niego, Cal., Sunday, October 6, 1912, Elizabeth E. Hitchings, wife of Charles J. Steuerwald and daughter of Hannah and the late Charles F. Hitchings. Interment at Woodlawn, New VADE .-- At South Orange, Sunday, October 1912, Elizabeth Headley Wade. Services at late residence, 06 Higgs pl., South Orange, N. J., Tuesday, October 8, 41 2:48 2. M.

UNDERTAKERS.

FRANK E. CAMPBELL